

Scatter can be a problem with many types of samples or even due to small scratches on the windows of sample cells.

Scatter introduces an artifact along the diagonal of the 2D spectrum, distorting the data.

The phase control provided by our pulse shaper allow scatter to be removed with the push of a button.